“What’s Love Got To Do With It?”

Watt’s Up:

“If I Love God, Then I’ll Love You!”

Power Verse:

“Whoever does not love does not know God, because God is love.”

- I John 4:8

For this devotion, you’ll need some pictures of adult animals and their babies. If you don’t have any pictures, do a Google search and click on some of those pictures. You could even have your children draw pictures of animals and their babies.

Look at the pictures with your children and talk about how the animals and their babies are alike and how they’re different. Then discuss how your own children resemble you. (Even if your children are adopted, they still resemble you in that they’re humans)

Read I John 4:7-8 and I John 3:10 and talk about the following questions:

- What does it mean to be “born of God?” (It means we are His children, and He is our father)
- According to I John 4:7, what is one way Christians should “look like” their Heavenly Father? (They should love each other)
- According to I John 3:10, what are two things that show that a person is not a child of God? (not doing what is right and not loving other people)

Explain to your children that just like children resemble their earthly parents, true children of God must resemble their Heavenly Father by the way they love other people; otherwise, the Bible says they’re not really God’s children. Point out that babies don’t look identical to their parents, but as they grow, they look more and more like them. The same is true for Christians: we don’t resemble God identically because we don’t love everybody as perfectly as He does, but as we grow, we resemble Him more and more.

Pray that God will help you love others more and more so you can resemble Him in everything you do.
